

Case Management Monthly

Best Practices and Practical Solutions

Case Management Monthly 2009 index

Complex case (supplement)

Assisting a patient with financial and medical needs.
April.

Assisting an entire family with case management.
September.

Case manager and physician advisor team up to gain funding for a privately insured patient. January.

Case managers find a payer source for an incarcerated patient. March.

Discharging a patient that refuses to leave. November.

Discharging an unfunded and out-of-state patient. June.

Managing unrealistic family expectations in a medically futile hospitalization. February.

Patient advocacy and the art of listening to patients and families. August.

Preventing readmissions with appropriate discharge planning. May.

Transferring a difficult patient to a rehabilitation facility.
October.

Unique follow-up program improves patient care. July.

Denials

Case management's role in managing denials. May, p. 7.

Clinical case management: An effective strategy for denials avoidance. Aug., p. 4.

Discharge planning

Expediting discharges with a case manager-nurse practitioner model. Aug., p. 7.

Facilitating transitions of care with the Care Express tool.
Oct., p. 4.

Improve patient satisfaction to enhance discharge planning: Connecting with patients to get results.
Feb., p. 7.

What are the benefits of using whiteboards to track patient discharges? Sept., p. 4.

Documentation

Avert fraud inquiry with proper documentation practices. March, p. 3.

One facility redevelops an assessment tool to ensure documentation. Sept., p. 1.

ED case management

Eliminate overcrowding in the ED: Refine and implement processes that get results. Jan., p. 5.

Pilot program identifies the cause of frequent ED visits;
patients overcome barriers. Dec., p. 1.

Recession-proof your facility: Dealing with the uninsured and underinsured population in the ED.
April, p. 7.

From the Director's Desk (supplement)

Bridging the communication gap: A case manager's approach to collaboration can improve discharge planning. January.

Community case management: Bridging the gap from acute care. August.

Determine an appropriate LOS for your facility. July.

Everyone wins with good discharge planning. November.

Evolution of the perfect case management model. October.

Guarding against readmissions. May.

The IM: Focus on intent, not just the task. September.
Is your facility RAC-ready? March.
Preparing tips for performance reviews. February.
Taking the mystery out of discharge planning. April.
When and why to transfer to an LTAC. June.

Length of stay

Managing long LOS patients. June, p. 6.
Ten best practices for reducing LOS. April, p. 6.
Weekly Top 10 meeting reduces LOS. Oct., p. 6.
What are some creative ways to reduce LOS? Nov., p. 4.

Managing caseload

Delegation in case management: Techniques to save your time and sanity. March, p. 5.
Determining accurate caseloads. May, p. 5.
Ten tips for better time management. June, p. 5.

Miscellaneous

Answers to your questions about dealing with undocumented patients. Oct., p. 1.
The challenge of evaluating case management professionals. Dec., p. 6.
Customer service counts in case management. Sept., p. 5.
HINNs help with difficult cases. Nov., p. 5.
How case management fits into the organization: A dialogue between case management and the C-suite. Feb., p. 4.
How case management influences organizational goals. July, p. 7.
Improve patient advocacy by creating a managed care partnership. Jan., p. 1.
'Making case management history' one story at a time. Dec., p. 7.
Process tips from your peers. Oct., p. 5.
Recruit and retain staff for top-notch case management. Aug., p. 1.
Starting case managers on the right foot: Creating a strong preceptor program. Jan., p. 7.

Tackling readmissions: An evidence-based approach to reduce rehospitalization. March, p. 7.
What is the difference between unit-based and specialty-based case management? July, p. 6.
What role does the case manager play in coordinating and implementing core measures? Jan., p. 3.

Patient care

Addressing patient noncompliance in medication adherence. April, p. 1.
Case managers intervene to aid admission process. July, p. 3.
Changing times call for weekend case management. April, p. 4.
Harnessing technology to advance case management: Entry through discharge patient tracking system improves patient care. Feb., p. 5.
Improve delivery of patient care with integrated case management. May, p. 1.
Observation status: Tips for accurate care determination. June, p. 2.
Partner with hospitalists to improve patient care. June, p. 3.
Traveling exposes case manager to many models. Dec., p. 4.
Virtual patient advocate could reduce readmissions. July, p. 1.

Regulations

Clearing up condition code 44 confusion. Nov., p. 1.
Free software can help you prepare for RAC audits. Sept., p. 7.
How CMS' 9th Scope of Work will affect readmissions. Aug., p. 6.
Mastering Medicare's Important Message. Feb., p. 1.
The RAC effect: How RACs influence case management. Nov., p. 6.
The RAC is back! How can I prepare my facility? May, p. 4.
What is the MAC and how will it affect case managers? March, p. 1. ■